

Volunteer Opportunities

Farm Day at WHRI is a bi-annual open house for our local community to visit for a personal encounter with life and operations on the Farm. We love introducing new faces to the farm as well as catching up with old friends. Farm Day provides activities, learning experiences and fun for all ages.

Attendance has been rising each season, so we need many volunteers from the community to help make Fall Farm Day a success. If you are willing and able to volunteer your time or services in any capacity, please call or email. In your response, let us know what you would like to help out with, and we will do our best to match opportunities with your preferences.
