

Friends of the Library Book Sale

Friends of the Library, a local non-profit, is hosting the Friends of the Library Book Sale Nov. 4 thru 7th at the Heart of Texas Fine Arts and General Exhibits Building. It is one of the largest Book Sales in the Southwest. Money is donated throughout the year to support the Waco-McLennan County Libraries which include Central Library, South Waco Library, East Waco Library and our new West Waco Library and Genealogy Center. Hours are:

Thursday, Nov 4th - 10:00 a.m to 9:00 p.m. $5.00

No fees for the following days:

Friday Nov. 5th - 10:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m

Saturday Nov 6th - 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Sunday Nov. 7th - 12:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. - $10.00 for a bag of books

Non-profits are allowed to come in and take as many books as they would like (free) from 5:00 to 6:00 on Sunday evening. We need letterhead, business card, etc. indicating that they are with a non-profit.

Sunday Nov. 7th Moonlight Madness - 7:00 p.m.- 9:00 p.m. ---$10.00 fee to enter, and bring your own boxes. Take all the books that you can before 9:00 p.m. Doors close at 9:00 p.m.

Thank you and let me know if you need additional information. My email address at work is paula_moerbe@jrft.com and direct line is 761-1688. Have a great day.