

The Summer 2010 White House internship program application is now available at: <http://www.whitehouse.gov/about/internships>.

In addition to office duties, interns will supplement their learning experience by attending a weekly lecture series hosted by senior staff, assist at White House events and volunteer in community service projects.

White House internships are full time, unpaid positions and participants are responsible for arranging their own transportation and housing.

Selection is based on the following criteria: A commitment to public service, Demonstrated leadership in the community, A commitment to the mission of the Obama Administration. A completed application includes two essay questions, three letters of recommendation, and a resume. The selection process is highly competitive. Applicants are encouraged to submit a thorough application that illustrates their qualifications, character, and commitment to public service.
