SEPTEMBER 30th EVENT PROVIDES WACO SENIORS AND CAREGIVERS WITH A ROADMAP TO MEDICARE

(Waco, TX) August X, 2010 – On September 30th, the Heart of Texas Council of Governments and Area Agency on Aging will join the Waco Social Security Administration Office, Care Improvement Plus and Texas Home Health in presenting, “Welcome to Medicare,” a free class for area seniors and their caregivers to learn about basic Medicare information, including the various Medicare coverage options and benefits provided under the federal program. Experts will provide guidance on many topics, including assistance programs to help with the cost of prescriptions and health care services, Social Security, and local caregiving resources. Educational materials will be available throughout the morning’s program, and light refreshments will be served.

WHAT: “Welcome to Medicare,” an educational program presented by Heart of Texas Council of Governments (HOTCOG) Area Agency on Aging. The event is free and open to the public.

WHEN & WHERE: Thursday, September 30, 2010
9:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.
Heart of Texas Council of Government (Training Room)
1514 New Road
Waco, TX 76711

WHY: Approximately 2.9 million Medicare beneficiaries reside in the state of Texas, with over 34,000 in the local Waco area. Recent changes in Medicare leave seniors needing a “roadmap” to Medicare and the coverage options it provides.

INFORMATION: Call (254) 292-1800 to obtain more information and register for the program.
