

The Whipping Man" Opens as Texas Premier in Jubilee Theatre

Dec 9-10 @ 7:30pm, Sunday Matinee, Dec11@ 2:30.

Emotional drama set in 1865 post-Civil War... "moving, imaginative, & compelling"

Redemption, forgiveness, the scars of slavery and the responsibility of new freedom are powerful emotions in this three-member cast of two slaves and a Jewish Confederate soldier. Mission Waco's Jubilee Theatre was selected to be the first Texas performance site of this recent Broadway production that received several 5-star ratings. Tickets are on sale now for the Friday and Saturday, 7:30pm performance and Sunday, 2:30pm matinee.

Call the office (254.753.4900) or email Stevie Walker-Webb <swebb@missionwaco.org> for details.
