

CMJC Needs Volunteers

Have you been looking for an opportunity to serve your community and minister to others? Christian Men's Job Corps is a ministry that helps men who are chronically unemployed gain life and employment skills in a Christian context. Since January 2010 CMJC has graduated 50 men, helping them find self-esteem and self-sufficiency.

We need volunteers or help us in this mission, including male mentors to walk alongside our students as a friend and helper. This takes about 2 hours per week on Thursday night and is a very rewarding part of our program. We also need a food coordinator who recruits volunteers to feed our students Wednesday and Thursday evenings at 6PM. CMJC is located directly across the street from Columbus Avenue Baptist Church. If you would like to volunteer or ask questions, contact Milt Anglin at 254-744-5605.

How many opportunities come along where you can obey Jesus' second greatest commandment. Here's one directly in your path. Please call or stop by 1207 Columbus Avenue.
