

Waco Housing Website

Hi, my name is Michael Jeter, I work down at the City Housing Department's Homelessness Prevention and Rapid Re-Housing Program (HPRP). We wanted to let you know about a new service we've brought to Waco, WacoHousingSearch.org, since it could be a great (and free) resource for non-profits, social service agencies, and individuals in the area. Through this service's website or toll-free call center (1-877-428-8844), potential tenants can search for rental homes or apartments, using all sorts of different criteria including price, location, accessibility features, and more. Our goal for this site is that by providing a centralized, comprehensive place to connect people with the housing they need, more people in Waco will be able to find suitable affordable housing, thus decreasing their risk of facing a housing crisis and/or homelessness.

WacoHousingSearch.org was created by a non-profit agency called Socialserve.com, and it's an amazing service that allows:

- Landlords to post available properties (FOR FREE)
- McLennan County residents to search properties (also for FREE!) and to locate specialized housing (i.e. Section 8, handicap friendly, etc.).
- Allows Housing and Social Service Agencies to post resources and tools for the housing community

We want as many people and agencies as possible to know about this great new resource, and would love for information about it to be posted on actlocallywaco.org. Our advertising card and the recent Waco Tribune article about it are attached. Also, we'd love for you to put a link to www.wacohousingsearch.org on your website- you can use one of the attached "web buttons" to do so if you'd like.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions.

Thanks!

Michael Jeter
