

People's Law School - Baylor Law School is providing a half-day curriculum of courses to help educate consumers about their legal rights on Sat., Feb. 18, at the Baylor Law School (1114 South University Parks Drive, Waco). Walk-in registration starts at 8:30AM. Go to www.baylor.edu/law/pls for more information. Pick up to 3 of the following classes:

Debt Collectors and the Law - 9:15AM class

E-Commerce - 9:15AM class

Elder Law - 10:30AM class or 11:45AM class

Employment Law - 11:45AM class

Family Law I (divorce and protective orders) - 10:30AM class

Family Law II (child custody, visitation, child support, grandparent's rights) - 11:45AM class

Finding the Law (using library and internet to find cases & statutes) - 10:30AM class or 11:45AM class

Health Care Reform Act - 10:30AM class or 11:45AM class

Home Owner's Association - 9:15AM class or 11:45AM class

Introduction to the Constitution - 9:15AM class

Landlord/Tenant - 9:15AM class or 10:30AM class

Law School: How to Get In - 9:15AM class or 11:45AM class

The McDonald's Hot Coffee Case - 9:15AM class or 10:30AM class

Privacy - 11:45AM class

Small Business Law - 10:30AM class or 11:45AM class

Social Security Disability Law - 9:15AM class or 10:30AM class

Veterans' Rights - 10:30AM class or 11:45AM class

Wills and Estate Planning - 9:15AM class or 10:30AM class

Not sure which 3 classes to select? If you're assisting local families, learning more about the following issues might be helpful: debt collection, family law, landlord/tenant law, Social Security Disability law, and employment law.