

“The annual Texas-area ‘No Need Among You’ Conference’ for Christian community developers and urban ministers will be held October 18-20, 2012, in Waco, TX. Pre-conference workshops will begin Thursday morning, 10/18, on Christian responses in restorative justice, sex trafficking, urban children/youth, mental illness, alcohol/drug abuse and the homeless. An outstanding list of plenary speakers and twenty workshops will help train churches and Christian non-profits to meet the urban challenges in their own communities. In addition, attendees may participate in Mission Waco/Mission World’s weekend poverty simulation, visit off-site ministries, attend the six-hour ‘Bridges Out of Poverty’ training (Ruby Payne method), or sign up for the Jubilee Theatre Saturday performing and visual arts workshop. Cost is only $75 for the entire conference, and $15 for pre-conference workshops. Registration will be available online soon at <www.nnay.texasbaptists.org>

The conference is sponsored by Mission Waco/Mission World, Texas Baptists, World Vision, Baylor School of Social Work, Mission Cy-Fair, Baptist University of the Americas, Crestview Church of Christ, and Waco Baptist Regional Network. Other sponsorships and underwriting currently sought. Exhibitors tables will also be available.

More details soon.”
