IF YOU HAVE BEEN AFFECTED BY COVID-19 AND NEED EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE, THE SALVATION ARMY IS HERE TO HELP.

WHO?

Individuals or families in Bosque, Falls, Freestone, Hill, Limestone or McLennan County who can demonstrate that they have been financially affected by Covid-19.

WHY?

The Salvation Army is dedicated to helping those in crisis to avoid or return from homelessness, address financial emergencies, provide food, clothing and shelter to those living in poverty and assist when a disaster strikes. We do this as part of our mission to meet human needs, serving in His name, without discrimination.

WHAT?

The Salvation Army has received a grant from the federal CARES Act to provide additional services, including financial assistance, to those financially affected by the Covid-19 pandemic.

If you had a loss of income, financial trouble, facing possible eviction or already homeless, loss of utilities, lacking food, struggling to pay household bills, had an illness or caring for someone with Covid-19, or have other situations that are directly related to the onset of the Covid-19 pandemic, we may be able to help you on the path to recovery.

HOW?

Contact the case worker listed for your county (see back).

Case workers will work with you, discussing your situation and determine how The Salvation Army may be able to help.

Assistance may include financial help, landlord negotiation to avoid eviction and homelessness and providing for other special needs as determined by your assessment.
